FOR RELEASE ON RECEIPT

The 1928 silent film Storm over Asia, directed by Vsevelod Pudovkin, will be screened at 2 p.m. this Sunday, September 22, at the Cleveland Museum of Art.

Originally scheduled for a September 15 showing, the film was delayed in arriving, and another substituted.

The rescheduled screening precedes the Museum's regular film program offering, Nosferatu, a 1922 silent directed by F. W. Murnau, and Earth, a 1930 silent directed by Alexander Dovzhenko. The regular film program begins at 3:30 p.m.

All films are screened in Gartner Auditorium on the first floor of the Museum. There is no admission charge.
